

Dora Wang

J.D. LL.B.

Lawyer

Dora Wang has extensive experience in family law and she takes a wholistic approach when providing legal advice to her clients, taking consideration of not only her clients but also the children, families, friends as well as the broader community her clients associate with.

Dora has acquired significant experience in her previous corporate career and is well positioned to utilise her commercial acumen in advising clients in property settlement. As a mother herself, she is also very empathetic and passionate about achieving the best outcome for the children in parenting matters.

Dora is admitted as a solicitor in the NSW Supreme Court and High Court of Australia. She holds Juris Doctor Degree from UNSW.

Dora is fluent in Mandarin. She is also specialised in working with clients who have multicultural background and overseas family/business connections.

Dora enjoys travel and food. She loves spending time with her family and three gorgeous/mischievous son and stepsons.
